Cr.MPs(M) No.621 and 622 of 2007.

25.9.2007. Present: Mr. B.C. Negi, Advocate, for the petitioners in both the cases.

Mr. P.M. Negi, Dy. Advocate General, for the respondent-State.

By this common order, both the petitions are being disposed of together.

It is submitted that challans have been filed. It is also stated that the cases are listed on 26th October, 2007 for consideration of framing of charges.

After hearing a part of the arguments of Mr. B.C. Negi, learned counsel appearing for the petitioners as well as Mr. P.M. Negi, learned Deputy Advocate General appearing for the respondent-State, I feel that, rather than this Court examining and considering the issue about the grant of bail in these cases, it shall be better and more desirable if the learned Sessions Judge once again consider the said issue in the light of the entire material on the files of the cases and by proper appreciation of the same.

On this being pointed out, Mr. B.C. Negi seeks to withdraw these petitions with liberty to the petitioners to approach the learned Sessions Judge immediately within the next few days by filing fresh applications for bail. Prayer allowed. The petitions are dismissed as withdrawn.

It is directed that the learned Sessions Judge shall entertain and dispose of the fresh bail applications in the light of,

and based upon the appreciation of the material on record, totally uninfluenced in any manner by any previous order(s) passed by the Court.

Dasti copy on usual terms.
